

Pakenham Spiritualist Centre Newsletter

Welcome...

Hi there, this is your friendly Reverend Pananda DonnaRae again, may you enjoy the teachings that take place through this wonderful 3 months of our Sanctuary Healing Love and Light. Messages coming from all who participate in this service, to each member within this sacred space. We make a time each fortnight with Spirit to come forward to assist the teachings and to come forward and touch base with their loved ones, wonderful Mediums again, working in their own way, thank you, we are very blessed.

Love Without Condition

Do you often find it easier to give advice to others, whilst hiding from the truth that the advice you give is advice that you, yourself, neglect to follow? Do you find it easier to nurture others and show them kindness and compassion? It is time to be kind and gentle with yourself; to love you – strengths and weaknesses – without reservation or condition. Nurture yourself. Be kind to yourself, for you are deserving of the same unconditional care and love that you give to others.

We hope you enjoy this 3 Months of communication of love and light.

Your loving Reverend Pananda.

A Poem by Canon Henry Scott-Holland

Death is nothing at all, I have only slipped away into the next room, I am I, and you are you.

Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way you always used.

Put no difference into your tone, wear no forced air of reverence or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes, we always enjoyed together.

Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Let my name be ever the household word, That it always was.

Let it be spoken without effort, Without the ghost of a shadow in it.

Life means all that it ever meant, It is the same as it ever was,

There is absolute unbroken continuity.

What is death but a negligible accident.

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight.

I am waiting for you,

For an interval somewhere very near,

Just around the corner.

All is well Nothing is past, nothing is lost.

One brief moment and all will be as it was before.

How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting,

When we meet again.

May you find some comfort in your memories and all that you shared.

BUILD UP YOUR OWN PHYLOSOPHY

Live in the present:

"Do not dwell in the past, do not dream of the future, concentrate the mind on the present moment"

~Budha~

Yesterday... Today... Tomorrow...

There are two days in every week about which we should not worry, two days which should be kept free from fear and apprehension.

One of these days is YESTERDAY with its mistakes and cares, its faults and blunders, its aches and pains YESTERDAY has passed forever beyond your control.

All the money in the world cannot bring back YESTERDAY.

We cannot undo a single act we performed: we cannot erase a single word said YESTERDAY is gone.

The other day we should not worry about is TOMORROW with its possible adversities, its burdens, its large promise and poor performance.

TOMORROW is also beyond our immediate control.

TOMORROW'S sun will rise, either in splendour or behind a mask of clouds-but it will rise. Until it does, we have no stakes in TOMORROW, for it is yet unborn.

This leaves only one day—TODAY. Any man or woman can fight the battles of just one day.

It is only when you add the burdens of those two awful Eternities—YESTERDAY and TOMORROW—that we break down.

It is not the experiences of TODAY that drive men or women mad—it is remorse or bitterness for something which happened YESTERDAY, and the dread of what TOMORROW may bring.

LET US THEREFORE, LIVE BUT ONE DAY AT A TIME.

ROAD FAITH IS ROAD SAFE...

Two nuns who worked in a hospital were out driving in the country when they ran out of gas.

As they were standing beside their car on the shoulder of the road, a truck approached them. Noticing the nuns in distress, the trucker stopped and offered to help. When the nuns explained they had run out of gas, the trucker said he would be more than happy to drain some from his tank, but he didn't have a bucket or a can.

Hearing this, one of the nuns dug out a clean bedpan from the trunk and asked the trucker if it would do. He said it would and proceeded to drain a couple of quarts into the pan. He then handed the pan to the sisters, got back into his truck and waved goodbye.

While the nuns were carefully pouring the precious fuel into their gas tank, a cop happened by. He stopped and watched them for a few moments, then said, "Sisters, somehow I don't think that's going to work, but I sure do admire your faith!"

WHEN YOU SEE A SIGN

“This is why you are seeing butterflies:

There comes a time in your life, when you seek support outside of yourself and you search for a sign that you are being watched over, and you begin to see butterflies everywhere.

And these are your symbol that there is support that exists for you beyond what you can see with your eyes for you have never truly been alone, but always surrounded by love.

For in the times when you felt alone or abandoned, you were receiving support from angels, or from passed on loved ones, rather than from the physical world.

And if you only know who walked beside you every moment, you would never feel afraid or unsupported again.”

Words, by Tahlia Hunter

28th July...

Last Sunday afternoon Service was full of laughter and lots of gems, healing, sharing, songs, messages from loved ones in the spirit world

Gratitude to our music man Ronald, the healing team and PSC team and of course the congregation for your love and support.

"No one leaves here alive. So please stop treating yourself as an afterthought. Eat delicious food. Walk in the sun. Jump into the sea. Speak the truth that you carry in your heart like a hidden treasure. Be silly. Be good. Be weird. There is no time for anything else. "

Love yourself:

"You, yourself, as much as anybody in the entire universe, deserve your love and affection"

Happiness is a journey:

how much you loved,
how gently you lived, and how gracefully you let go of things not meant for you"

PERSONAL PRAYER FOR DIFFICULT TIMES...

Individually and collectively, we unite in thought.

Within our hearts and minds a light is ignited, our spirit is awakened and for these few moments we put aside any anxiety in seeking peace and strength to walk our path.

We pray to the great architect of life who is known by many names in this world, and those who dwell are in your care.

May we be forever mindful of the goodness which lives in the physical world and create a capacity to think, see, hear, live with our own life force in harmony with others.

We pray for those who are in need wherever they may be, whatever land they reside and language they speak.

As spirit living a human existence, that power which is our birth right, we project our love freely to our brothers and sisters, the animal kingdom, and Mother Earth.

We seek the communion of Spirits and the Ministry of Angels in service to humanity regardless of colour or creed.

As a Spiritual Army we help all those who need guidance when perplexed, light when lost, comfort when lonely.

We project our thoughts with humility knowing that wherever it is possible the spiritual inspiration will make humankind even more spiritually aware for the greater good.

CANCEL, CLEAR, DELETE

We call upon the karmic board of ascended beings, the angels, guides and light keepers of the akashic, who love us unconditionally.

We ask for your divine blessings, healing and assistance, now.

We open ourselves up to divine grace, divine love and karmic absolution.

We choose to release old stories, vows, contracts and patterns that are no longer aligned with who we came here to be in the present time.

We keep the lessons but surrender our attachments to the sufferings we have experienced due to these karmas/contracts/vows.

We have learned and been willing to go through this experience, but now we choose to learn and grow through a higher vibrational experience of love.

Through our own free will, this karmic clearing manifests now, according to the highest law of love.

This will now free us and those we made the contracts with. And so, it is 11th August...

Thank you everyone who was there, for your unconditional assistance.

THE PRIEST, THE RABBI AND THE MONK

A priest, a rabbi and a Buddhist monk get arrested for illegal gambling.

They get in front of the judge. He starts questioning the priest first, "Did you play poker yesterday?"

The priest mumbles a quick 'Lord forgive me' and answered "No."

The judge turns to the rabbi and asks him, "Did you play poker yesterday?" The rabbi crosses his fingers behind his back and answers a clear "No."

Finally, the judge turns to the Buddhist monk and tells him, "So you are a Buddhist monk, I know for a fact that you are absolutely forbidden to lie to me!

Did YOU play poker yesterday?" The monk looks at the priest, then at the rabbi.

He smiles at the judge and asks, "How could I possibly play poker all by myself?"

QUOTES

"To understand everything is to forgive everything"

When you realize how perfect everything is you will tilt your head back and laugh at the sky.

A Prayer For The World...

Let the rain come and wash away the ancient grudges, the bitter hatreds held and nurtured over generations.

Let the rain wash away the memory of the hurt, the neglect.

Then let the sun come out and fill the sky with rainbows.

Let the warmth of the sun heal us wherever we are broken.

Let it burn away the fog so that we can see each other clearly.

So that we can see beyond labels,

Beyond accents, gender or skin colour.

Let the warmth and brightness of the sun melt our selfishness.

So that we can share the joys and feel the sorrows of our neighbours.

And let the light of the sun be so strong that we will see all people as our neighbours.

Let the earth, nourished by rain, bring forth flowers to surround us with beauty and let the mountains teach our hearts to reach upward to heaven.

Amen.

You belong to Eternity

"Strive to remember who you are, what you are and why you are here. Even with all your knowledge, there are times when, immersed in the day-to-day problems, you are apt to overlook eternal realities.

It is these eternal truths to which you must cling. There is nothing else in the whole world of matter which can provide you with a foundation on which to build your lives.

Spirit, not matter, is the reality. You may not be able to see it, or touch it, or feel it. You may not be able to experience its reality in the manner in which you obtain material sensations, but it is still the master of all. Realize that you belong to eternity, you are but pilgrims treading a temporary passage through life".

"Guidance from Silver Birch" edited by Anne Dooley p. 74.

True Strength...

Amidst the world of green and light,
A man beheld a wondrous sight,
A cocoon with promise of new life,
A butterfly, with wings of might.

He watched in awe as it did struggle,
Against the cocoon, a resilient bugle,
Fighting its way through a tiny hole,
The journey wrought with pain and trouble.

But soon the struggle reached a standstill,
And the man's heart, with pity, did fill,
With scissors, he sliced the cocoon's remains,
Unaware of the butterfly's future gains.

The butterfly emerged with ease,
But with a body that was not appeased,
Swollen and heavy, its wings but a sliver,
It crawled, but could not take to the river.

The man, confused, looked on with wonder,
Expecting wings to grow, to thunder,
And lift the butterfly into the sky,
To soar and to dance, to live and to fly.

But the butterfly could not take flight,
A victim of the man's well-intended plight,
Unaware of nature's balancing act,
Of struggle, of pain, and the ultimate impact.

For struggles are the crux of life,
Sharp as a blade, like a surgeon's knife,
But needed for our strength to grow,
And wings to unfurl, our spirit to glow.

Without the battles that we face,
We'd never reach our destined place,
To live in freedom, to learn to fly,
To soar beyond the limits of the sky.

So let us embrace the struggles we face,
And find our wings in life's wild race,
For it's in the challenge that we'll find,
The beauty of life, the limitless mind.

What is the Moral / Meaning of “The Struggle of the Butterfly” Poem?

This poem weaves a profound spiritual lesson about the importance of struggle and growth.

Just as the butterfly must endure the struggle of breaking free from its cocoon, so too must we face challenges in our own lives to emerge stronger and more resilient.

The poem reminds us, that growth often comes through adversity, and it is through our struggles that we find the strength to spread our wings and soar.

Astral Travelling...

Actually, every one of you travels astrally when you go to sleep.

Then your spirit, for the time being, departs from your body, roams into our world and meets souls you love and who love you.

It is a divine provision by which preparation is made for the time when you come here, so that it will not be a shock.

When you do come you will remember and be ready for the many wonderful happenings that spirit life has to offer you.

It could be said that you die every night."

Teachings by Silver Birch

Sherlock Holmes Goes Camping...

Sherlock Holmes and Dr. John Watson went on a camping trip.

After sharing a good meal and a bottle of Petrie wine, they retire to their tent for the night.

At about 3 AM, Holmes nudges Watson and asks, "Watson, look up into the sky and tell me what you see?"

Watson said, "I see millions of stars."

Holmes asks, "And, what does that tell you?"

Watson replies, "Astronomically, it tells me there are millions of galaxies and potentially billions of planets.

Astrologically, it tells me that Saturn is in Leo.

Theologically, it tells me that Creator is great, and we are small and insignificant.

Horologically, it tells me that it's about 3 AM.

Meteorologically, it tells me that we will have a beautiful day tomorrow.

What does it tell you, Holmes?"

Holmes retorts, "Someone stole our tent."

A joke for you...

THE SADDEST STORY OF ALL TIME

Three writers, Sam, Pete, and Chuck, who were attending a writing convention, booked a room on the 75th floor of a hotel.

When they arrived back at the hotel from the convention, the receptionist told them, "I'm terribly sorry, but the elevator is broken. In the meantime, you will have to take the stairs."

Now, Sam was a writer of funny stories, Pete was a writer of scary stories, and Chuck was a writer of sad stories.

The three of them agreed that, to make it less boring, Sam would tell the other two his funniest stories while they climbed from floors 1 to 25, Pete would tell his scariest stories from floors 26 to 50, and Chuck would tell his saddest stories from floors 51 to 75.

They started to climb the stairs, and Sam started to tell funny stories. By the time they reached the 25th floor, Pete and Chuck were laughing hysterically.

Then Pete started to tell scary stories. By the time they reached the 50th floor, Sam and Chuck were hugging each other in fear.

Then Chuck started to tell sad stories. He stuck his hands in his pockets, thinking, "Ah, I'll tell my saddest story of all first." he said.

He coughed nervously. "There once was a man named Chuck, who left the hotel room key in the car..."

KNOW YOU BELONG

You have place.

You have purpose.

You are special.

Do not change who you are,
just so others might accept you.

Do not dishonour your truths by allowing someone else to tell you who you must be.

Change made just so you fit the expectations or social criteria of a clique or group does not honour you.

You do not need to change in order to belong.

You are a blessed child of Gaia, Mother Earth and Great White Spirit and belong simply because you are.

Let Your Learning Come From Within...

Never at any time close your heart and mind. Never be afraid of the new, of the strange, of the unconventional. Be ready and prepared to listen to the intuition, to inspiration which may reveal something so completely new to you, that it may not even have form or substance, and you may have to clothe it in words.

Intellectual pride can be a handicap, along this spiritual path and can be a real stumbling block to the truth. It is not the intellect you need; it is inspiration and intuition. The intellect comes from without, whereas inspiration and intuition come from within and cannot be influenced by anything without.

Let your learning come from within; draw from all that you have within you. You will be amazed at what you contain. It is limitless because it comes from CREATOR and I AM limitless, and all that is of CREATOR is limitless and eternal.
