

Pakenham Spiritualist Centre Newsletter

Welcome...

Hi there, this is your friendly Reverend Pananda DonnaRae again.

Our Christmas holidays went so fast hey, and here we are our first Service for the year 2024 with the lovely ladies, Medium Rev Trish Roche of Lilydale Spiritualist Church and our lovely Medium Sharon Lee-Gaine of Rosslyn Sanctuary Anam Cara, these two beautiful Souls have graciously opened our first service, I feel so blessed that they have honoured our Sanctuary with their unconditional service with Spirit Connections.

The schedule for the year has been organised and we are in for a wonderful year of a selection of Mediums, each working in totally different ways, which excites us in their communication of love and light messages to the loved ones who are present in our Services.

We enjoy the friendship of new and old and the PSC Team who unconditionally assist the Sanctuary and our Services to run like clockwork.

Message from Reverend Pan

Nurture all your love, take the time to nurture the things you care about so that they may flourish and grow.

Your hopes, your dreams, your body, your mind, your spirit, your creations and your relationships, all that is you, needs to be cherished, loved, honoured and respected.

Without care and attention, these aspects of self can fall into a state of neglect that does only harm to both you and the world around you.

Nurture them, and they will bring you peace and fulfilment.

We hope you enjoy this first Newsletter for 2024

From Rev P.

N.B. Please note that for 2024 there has been a change in the starting times for our healings (1:15pm) and the service (2:00pm—4:00pm).

Clay Balls

A man was exploring caves by the seashore. In one of the caves he found a canvas bag with a bunch of hardened clay balls. It was like someone had rolled clay balls and left them out in the sun to bake.

They didn't look like much, but they intrigued the man, so he took the bag out of the cave with him. As he strolled along the beach, he would throw the clay balls one at a time out into the ocean as far as he could.

He thought little about it, until he dropped one of the clay balls and it cracked open on a rock. Inside was a beautiful, precious stone!

Excited, the man started breaking open the remaining clay balls. Each contained a similar treasure. He found thousands of dollars worth of jewels in the 20 or so clay balls he had left. Then it struck him.

He had been on the beach a long time. He had thrown maybe 50 or 60 of the clay balls with their hidden treasure into the ocean waves. Instead of thousands of dollars in treasure, he could have taken home tens of thousands, but he had just thrown it away!

It's like that with people. We look at someone, maybe even ourselves, and we see the external clay vessel. It doesn't look like much from the outside. It isn't always beautiful or sparkling, so we discount it.

We see that person as less important than someone more beautiful or stylish or well known or wealthy. But we have not taken the time to find the treasure hidden inside that person.

There is a treasure in each one of us. If we take the time to get to know that person, and if we ask God to show us that person the way He sees them, then the clay begins to peel away and the brilliant gem begins to shine forth.

May we not come to the end of our lives and find out that we have thrown away a fortune in friendships because the gems were hidden in bits of clay. May we see the people in our world as God sees them.

I am so blessed by the gems of friendship I have with each of you. Thank you for looking beyond my clay vessel.

I Wish You Enough

I wish you enough sun to keep your attitude bright no matter how grey the day may appear.

I wish you enough rain to appreciate the sun even more.

I wish you enough happiness to keep your spirit alive and everlasting.

I wish you enough pain so that even the smallest of joys in life may appear bigger.

I wish you enough gain to satisfy your wanting.

I wish you enough loss to appreciate all that you possess.

I wish you enough hellos to get you through the final good-bye.

I Wish You Enough...

I wish you enough sun to keep your attitude bright no matter how grey the day may appear.

I wish you enough rain to appreciate the sun even more.

I wish you enough happiness to keep your spirit alive and everlasting.

I wish you enough pain so that even the smallest of joys in life may appear bigger.

I wish you enough gain to satisfy your wanting.

I wish you enough loss to appreciate all that you possess.

I wish you enough hellos to get you through the final good-bye.

Believe nothing just because a so-called wise person said it.
Believe nothing just because a belief is generally held.
Believe nothing just because it is said in ancient books.
Believe nothing just because it is said to be of divine origin.
Believe nothing just because someone else believes it.
Believe only what you yourself test and judge to be true.
– Buddha

Remember me? My name is Gossip.

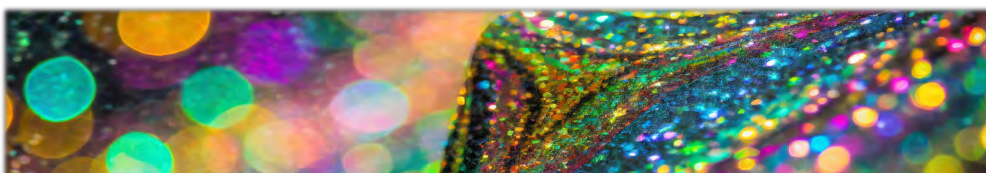

I have no respect for justice. I maim without killing; I break hearts and ruin lives.

I am cunning and malicious and gather strength with age. The more I am quoted, the more I am believed. I flourish at every level of society. My victims are helpless. They cannot protect themselves against me because I have no name and face.

To track me down is impossible - the harder you try, the more elusive I become. I am nobody's friend - once I tarnish a reputation, it is never quite the same.

My name is gossip!

It is not possible to grow until we have TOTALLY LET GO OF THE DESIRE TO GOSSIP OR TO PARTICIPATE IN IT!

I brought flowers down from heaven,

I put them at your door,

a reminder that I'm with you,

today and forever more.

I danced in fields of love,

so you'd feel me in your heart,

a reminder that I'm with you,

and we are not apart.

I sang to the tune called memories,

so you could join in too,

a reminder that I'm with you,

and that I never left you.

I met you in your dreams,

so you could smile again,

a reminder that I'm with you,

to try to ease your pain.

I whispered in the wind,

blew a kiss upon your face,

a reminder that I'm with you in every single place.

Risk...

To laugh is to risk appearing the fool.

To weep is to risk appearing sentimental.

To reach out is to risk involvement.

To expose feelings is to risk exposing your true self.

To place your ideas and dreams before the crowd is to risk their love.

To love is to risk not being loved in return.

To live is to risk dying.

To hope is to risk despair.

To try is to risk failure.

But the greatest hazard in life is to risk nothing.

The one who risks nothing does nothing and has nothing - and finally is nothing.

One may avoid suffering and sorrow,

But one simply cannot learn, feel, change, grow, or love.

Chained by ones certitude, one is a slave; one has forfeited freedom.

Only one who risks is free!

Transformation happens naturally. It's a matter of love. It's not something to talk about, it's something to experience

"HUGS"

*Hugs are actually so underrated,
Especially those hugs that are so tight you can literally feel the other person's heartbeat and for a moment everything feels so calm and safe like nothing can hurt you.*

24th March...

We had a wonderful afternoon with friendship, smiles of many messages of communication from our loved ones from the spirit world.

How blessed we were with Andrew Glen inspirational talk of his spiritual journey & teachings overseas, the main message was Trust your guidance from within, your guides, great white spirit

Maureen Ockenden wow, beautiful flow of trust with her spiritual team, one after another connected with a loved one, relayed proof and messages

Andrew, Maureen, and Rev. Pananda

Andrew Glen followed suit. He walked a little 2 1/2 year old Spirit girl to her adult sister, then continued with the message, which was so important to relay of love and encouragement to continue on her journey.

How precious to witness such unconditional love and service from these two mediums who have a great bond working together, bringing laughter and mischief which spirit and congregation love.

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you. You both rock.

With many songs and spiritual prayer of gratitude, meditation, story and joke.

And a joyful kitchen, with the buzz of chitter chatter, laughter and food.

I know Rev Lakis and Mara will have a smile on their faces seeing the Sanctuary full and the kitchen full of communication, bringing friendship and likeminded together.

Pakenham Spiritualist Centre was opened by Rev Lakis and his lovely wife Mara, in May 2010

One Song...

One song
Can change a moment.
One idea
Can change a world.
One step
Can change a journey.
But one prayer
Can change the impossible.

“Sorry”

works when a mistake is made, but not when trust is broken.
So in life, make mistakes but never break a trust. Because forgiving is easy, but forgetting and trusting again is sometimes impossible.

Grief...

Grief never ends...
But it changes. It's a passage, not a place to stay.
Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith... It is the price of love.
So look after yourself, it'll be ok.

BOWL...

A man and his dog were walking along a road. The man was enjoying the scenery, when it suddenly occurred to him that he was dead.

He remembered dying, and that the dog walking beside him had been dead for many years. He wondered where the road was leading them.

After a while, they came to a high, white stone wall along one side of the road. It looked like fine marble. At the top of a long hill, it was broken by a tall arch that glowed in the sunlight.

As he was standing before it he saw a magnificent gate in the arch that looked like mother-of-pearl, and the street that led to the gate looked like pure gold. He and the dog walked toward the gate, and as he got closer, he saw a man at a desk on one side.

When he was close enough, he called out, "Excuse me, where are we?"

"This is Heaven, sir," the man answered.

"Wow! Would you happen to have some water?" the man asked.

"Of course, sir. Come right in, and I'll have some ice water brought right up."

The man gestured, and the gate began to open!

"Can my friend," gesturing toward his dog, "come in, too?" the traveller asked

"I'm sorry sir, but we don't accept pets."

The man thought a moment and then turned back toward the road and continued the way he had been going with his dog.

After another long walk, and at the top of another long hill, he came to a dirt road leading through a farm gate that looked as if it had never been closed. There was no fence. As he approached the gate, he saw a man inside, leaning against a tree and reading a book.

"Excuse me!" he called to the man. "Do you have any water?"

"Yeah, sure, there's a pump over there, come on in."

"How about my friend here?" the traveller gestured to the dog.

"There should be a bowl by the pump."

They went through the gate, and sure enough, there was an old-fashioned hand pump with a bowl beside it. The traveller filled the water bowl and took a long drink himself, then he gave some to the dog. When they were full, he and the dog walked back toward the man who was standing by the tree.

"What do you call this place?" the traveller asked.

"This is Heaven," he answered.

"Well, that's confusing," the traveller said. "The man down the road said that was Heaven, too."

"Oh, you mean the place with the gold street and pearly gates? Nope. That's hell."

"Doesn't it make you mad for them to use your name like that?"

"No, we're just happy that they screen out the folks who would leave their best friends behind."

Crystals...

Gemstones and crystals possess a natural magic, rooted in the Earth's wonders. These stones are an integral part of the Earth, as quartz makes up a significant portion of our planet's composition. Quartz, composed of silica and water, mirrors the elements within our own bodies, which are primarily water. The Earth's magnetic field resonates with the vibrational energy of crystals and gemstones, much like the magnetic field of the human aura. The piezoelectric properties of crystals, along with the energy fields of other gemstones, align with our human energy and electrical frequencies. This alignment allows them to be powerful tools for rebalancing our energy when we need healing or realignment. As inhabitants of Earth, we share a deep connection with the gemstones and crystals that emerge from it.

Healers have long utilised crystals and gemstones, and their significance is growing as their energy becomes more activated. These stones are now playing a more prominent role in healing both people and the Earth. As crystals and gemstones evolve and heal, their expanding frequencies help to open, align, and reprogram human auras. The small crystals and colored gemstones we carry in our pockets or wear as jewelry offer more benefits than we often realize, with their energy becoming increasingly potent over time. As the Earth awakens and heals, so too do the crystals and gemstones, her tools of healing, which in turn help to awaken and heal all living things.

When working with crystals:

RULE NO. 1:

There are no strict rules for using crystals or minerals in healing.

RULE NO. 2:

For any other rules, see Rule No. 1.

One ought, every day at least, to hear a little song, read a good poem, see a fine picture, and, if it were possible, to speak a few reasonable words.

Story of a Poor Family..

One day a father of a very wealthy family took his young son on a trip to the country with the firm purpose of showing him how poor People lived. They spent a couple of days and nights on the farm, of What would be considered a very poor family?

On their return from their trip, the father asked his son, "How was The trip?" The son replied: "It was great, Dad."

"Did you see how poor people live?" asked the father.

The son answered: "I saw that we have one dog and they have four.

We Have a pool that reaches to the middle of our garden; they have a Creek that has no end. We have imported lanterns in our garden; they Have the stars at night.

Our patio reaches to the front yard, they have the whole horizon. We have a small piece of land to live on; they have fields that go beyond their sight. We have servants to serve us, but they serve others. We buy our food, but they grow theirs. We have walls around our property to protect us; they have friends to protect them."

The father simply stood there, utterly speechless.

Then his son added, "Thanks, Dad, for showing me how poor we are!"

A big thank you to Ali, Celeste, Pam, Donna, Joan, Nat, and all our Healers and others who have helped with services.

To all the members of this Sanctuary who also unconditionally assist us and that help with the packing up. Your help is very much appreciated.
