🕊️ Spiritual Profile

Ronald Kohlman is a deeply grounded spiritual healer and facilitator with over 30 years of experience in traditional and energy-based healing modalities. His path weaves together ancient wisdom and modern understanding, supporting others on their journey of self-discovery, healing, and spiritual awakening.

Ronald's spiritual calling began in the early 1990s through rebirthing workshops and immersive spiritual development training in Melbourne. His journey led him to study with traditional healers and shamans across the globe, including Native American, South American, Hawaiian, and Eastern lineages. He brings this depth of practice to every session and circle, holding space with humility, compassion, and spiritual integrity.

- Shamanic Practice & Ceremony

  Having had the honour of learning from traditional Native American Elders—including participations in Sundance and Inipi (sweat lodge) ceremonies—as well as from Peruvian Q'echua shamans and Hawaiian Huna teachings. Ronald's work integrates sacred ritual, Earth-based wisdom, drum journeys, spirit communication, and ceremonial healing.

- Massage & Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM)

  Drawing on the principles of Traditional Chinese Medicine, Ronald integrates acupressure, meridian therapy, and energetic bodywork to support the body's natural healing processes. His massage sessions combine intuitive touch with knowledge of TCM pathways, helping to release muscular tension, harmonise internal energy flow (Qi), and restore balance across the physical and subtle bodies. Sessions may include breathwork, pressure-point activation, and energy-based techniques to promote deep relaxation and revitalisation.

  With qualifications in general and bereavement counselling, I also hold sacred space for those navigating loss, emotional trauma, life transitions, and soul-purpose discovery.

Ronald supports the Pakenham Spiritualist Centre alongside Rev. Pananda DonnaRae Kohlman and facilitates Spiritual Development Circles in Melbourne's eastern suburbs. He is a supporter of Amazon Promise, a non-profit medical outreach organisation serving remote Indigenous communities the people of the Peruvian Amazon and is active in men's sacred work and community support initiatives.

Healing is not just about personal transformation—it's about reconnecting to community, to Spirit, to the Earth, and to one another.

🌿 My Approach

Ronald's healing work is grounded, intuitive, and always Spirit-led. Whether offering a one-on-one session, co-facilitating a spiritual development circle, or sitting in silent ceremony, the aim is to meet each person where they are—with compassion, clarity, and deep respect.

Drawing upon a wide array of energetic, spiritual, and somatic modalities, always guided by what your body, energy field, and spirit are ready to release, integrate, or remember. The tools used are many—but the intention is always the same: to help you reconnect with your own essence and your unique spiritual truth.

🌈 A Personal Note

If you're feeling the call to reconnect—to yourself, to Spirit, to healing—I welcome you with an open heart. Whether you join one of our circles, attend a healing, or simply reach out for a conversation, I honour the path you're on and the sacred timing that has brought you here.

With warmth and respect, Ronald.
